Jo Anne:

I am writing to provide you a status report on our progress on mediating this case. I have shared a draft of this report with Jack Pringle and he has approved it as a joint report from our clients. The Duke companies and Cherokee County Cogeneration have reached agreement on two potential mediators. Both people have backgrounds in utility regulation and we believe that either of them would be well qualified to mediate the issues presented in this case. We plan to contact the potential mediators next week to try to firm up plans to proceed with mediation.

It appears that ORS will participate in the mediation as appropriate given its interest in the case. Duke and Cherokee think that ORS participation will be helpful.
